

ALLIANCE FOR INNOVATION
ON MATERNAL HEALTH

Cardiac Conditions in Obstetrical Care Element
Implementation Details

Cardiac Conditions in Obstetrical Care Implementation Details

Recognizing that cardiac conditions are complex, further details are offered here to support portions of Cardiac Conditions in Obstetrical Care Bundle implementation.

Readiness — Every Unit

Readiness element	Key Points
Unit	All care settings potentially including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Emergency Departments• Urgent Care• Other practice areas where health care providers may not have specialized training in the care of pregnant and postpartum people
Cardiac Conditions Screen	Should include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Patient history of cardiac conditions• Patient-reported symptoms• Vital signs• Physical examination
Multidisciplinary Care Team	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• May be known as a “Pregnancy Heart Team” or similar designated group of responders for OB Cardiac emergency care• Including elements of telehealth as appropriate• Consultants should be appropriate to their facility’s designated Maternal Level of Care
Resources should include:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Specialist care• Social driver needs• Mental health supports• Substance use disorder treatment

Cardiac Conditions in Obstetrical Care Implementation Details

Recognition & Prevention — Every Patient

Recognition element	Key Points
Screening for community support needs and resources provided	Screening should include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Medical needs • Mental health needs • Substance use disorder needs • Structural and social drivers of health All provided resources should align with the pregnant or postpartum patient's: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Health literacy • Cultural needs • Language proficiency • Geographic location and access

Response — Every Event

Recognition element	Key Points
Patient education	Should include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Who to contact with medical and mental health concerns, ideally stratified by severity of condition or symptoms • Review of warning signs/symptoms • Reinforcement of the value of outpatient postpartum visits • Summary of delivery events All education provided should be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In appropriate lay terminology • Aligned with the postpartum person's health literacy, culture, language, and accessibility needs • Include a designated support person for all teaching with patient permission (or as desired)

Cardiac Conditions in Obstetrical Care Implementation Details

Reporting and Systems Learning - Every Unit

Respectful Care element	Key Points
Multidisciplinary Case Review	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Consistent issues should be reported via established pathways

Respectful, Equitable, and Supportive Care — Every Unit/Provider/Team Member

Respectful Care element	Key Points
Inclusion of the patient as part of the multidisciplinary care team	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Establishment of trust• Informed, bidirectional shared decision-making• Patient values and goals as the primary driver of this process
Patient support networks may include nonfamilial supports, such as doulas and home visitors, who, with the postpartum person's permission, should be welcomed when any teaching or planning is provided.	